

Six Washington band students were honored as part of the elite 1st and 2nd year band students in South East Iowa on Saturday, April 27th at Clear Creek Amana HS. Students arrived at 9:30am and rehearsed or did Master classes with participating directors until noon, rehearsed until about 3:30pm and presented a concert of five pieces each at 4:30pm. The first year band students were under the direction of Eric Lins from the Cedar Falls CSD and the second year band students were directed by retired Hampton director and Executive Director of the Iowa Alliance for Arts Education, Leon Kuehner.

Washington band directors are Don Hughes and Craig McClenahan.

Washington 5th graders earning all SEIBA honors were: Kezyah W-Clarinet and Audrey S.

Washington Middle School 6th graders earning all SEIBA honors were: Katherine F- French Horn, Joseph M-Percussion, Trevin S-Tuba, and Claire W- Trombone.

Photo order: Joseph, Claire, Katherine, Trevin, Kezyah, and Audrey.