

WHS officials located a message, Tuesday afternoon, written on a restroom stall. It included a threat to students and staff at WHS to take place on Friday. An investigation is underway. Police will be in the building today and at least through the end of the week. I struggle because I don't want to incite panic, but at the same time as a parent, I would want to know about it and that the school is aggressively dealing with it.

-Mr. Stone